Course Description: The goal of utilizing Muscle Energy Techniques is to correct motion restrictions and improve the client's functional range of motion. This course will teach techniques that are unique to Muscle Energy Technique - regarding evaluation, prioritizing findings and treatment of joint stiffness. In this module, you will understand the clinical implications of Muscle Energy Technique, the rationale for treatment, progression and its integration with other treatment modalities. Muscle Energy Technique is a direct technique based on a concept originated by Dr. Fred Mitchell, Sr., DO. This Lower Quadrant module will focus on the pelvis, sacrum hips and lower extremities, and will help reduce protective muscle spasm, fascial tension, pain, increase joint mobility, restore proper joint biomechanics and postural alignment. You will see immediate changes in your patient's pain and functional level. Because of the gentleness and effectiveness of these techniques, they are appropriate with the following patient populations; neurological, amputees, sports injuries, auto accidents, pediatrics, geriatrics, respiratory and general orthopedic conditions.
