

Simplifying the Complex

Considerations and approaches concerning Integration

Course Description:

This workshop is intended to explore the question: “Having worked with a client to assist in releasing existing patterns and limitations, permitting new options and possibilities, now what?”

Tom Wing trained as a Rolfer with Dr. Ida P. Rolf in 1973, 1974, and 1976, and has been in active practice since 1974. He taught on the Faculty of the Rolf Institute of Structural Integration® from 1977 until 1991, and is now returned to teaching at the Guild of Structural Integration (GSI) as a visiting faculty affiliated with the Rolf Institute®. For the first 22 years of practice he lived and worked in Boulder, Colorado. He has been located and practicing in Washington State since 1995.
