

MTBOK comment form #1	SI issue #1 Manual practices that have their own standards of education, examination and practice (Section 10, line 159)
1. version	a. Second Draft
2. e-mail	is optional
3. “I am” (demographics)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• For SI practitioners who are not also massage therapists check “Allied Health Field or profession”.</li> <li>• If you are a member of IASI, also check “Trade or Professional Association”</li> </ul>
4. What category or section?	Select: Section 10 - Second Draft Preamble
5. What line number where the text you want to comment on begins?	Enter: line 167
6. Please put your comment here.(Max 20 lines of up to 100 characters each)	Suggested comment / essential content:  •Structural Integration should be added to the list of professions that have their own standards of education, examination and practice. In addition to individual school standards, The Certification Board for Structural Integration <sup>SM</sup> has developed a psychometrically valid certification exam and imparts the designation: Board Certified Structural Integrator cm.

Please see second document guide on page 2 below-

MTBOK comment form #2	SI Issue #2 The second section covers what is not included in the scope of practice of massage therapy.
1. version	a. Second Draft
2. e-mail	is optional
3. "I am" (demographics)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• For SI practitioners who are not also massage therapists check "Allied Health Field or profession".</li> <li>• If you are a member of IASI, also check "Trade or Professional Association"</li> </ul>
4. What category or section?	Select: 140 - What IS NOT included in the Scope
5. What line number where the text you want to comment on begins?	Enter: line 372
6. Please put your comment here.(Max 20 lines of up to 100 characters each)	Suggested Content -  •Structural integration should be added to the list of "What is Not included in the Scope of Practice" because structural integration as recognized by the direct descendants of Dr. Ida Rolf's teaching, differs in lineage, philosophy and standards of practice from those of massage therapy.

Thank you very much -